

Spring 2010 Seminar Schedule

Saturday April 24th, 2010

Toronto Area (TBA)

Law Enforcement Preparation Training Course

4 hours in length

$150.00 per person plus tax

For high-end security and those planning to apply for a career in Law Enforcement. Canadian Use of Force Systems is regularly contracted to teach advanced training applications for elite Law Enforcement Special Operations units and teams operating in unique roles. Within this 5-6 hour course we take you directly through Use of Force theory and practical application, Self-Protection, Control Tactics, Handcuffing and Expandable Baton basics. No confusing language or tactics. Cutting directly to the point, explaining to you the weaknesses of the current training platforms and understanding the core of what you are going to have to learn and be tested on within Law Enforcement recruitment programs. Invaluable if you are planning to apply to a police force.
